

DRAFT SPADA CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

20-21 NOVEMBER 2019

AOTEA CENTRE, AUCKLAND

MC: TBC

DAY ONE - Wednesday 20 November

Hunua Rooms 1 & 2	Waitakere 1 Room	Waitakere 2	Waitakere 3
Plenary/Session Venue	Sessions	Sessions/Roundtables	Sessions/Roundtables
8.00-5.30 Registration Desk Open (Foyer)
8.30-09.00 Welcome & Official Opening by Min. of Broadcasting, Communications and Digital Media, Hon Kris Faafoi
9.00-9.30 NZ On Air John O'Shea Memorial Address delivered by Miranda Harcourt
0930-10.00 MORNING TEA (Foyer)
10.00-11.00 In Conversation with Emmy Award Winning US Showrunner JENJI KOHAN (In Association with Film Bay of Plenty)
11.00-12.00 What Do We Have to Do to Grow a Screen Industry? An exciting interactive session where the audience and 'Questioners' - Lillian Hanly, Amanda Jane Robinson and Morgan Leigh Stewart - will all play a part in interrogating the Speakers as we tackle this major topic. Speakers: Helen Bowden, Brett O'Reilly, Jonathan Olsberg and Jack McQuire. Chair John Barnett
12.00-1.00 TV	12.00-1.00 Film	12.00-1.00	12.00-1.00
The Power of Local Commissioners from TV3, MTS, Sky/Prime, TVNZ, RNZ and ABC join Irene Gardiner to discuss the power of local production and explore the trends, challenges and opportunities.	The Future of Distribution Brought to you by ANZSA Nigel Forsyth, Debra Richards, Jill McNab and Andrew Cozens discuss the future of distribution with facilitator Paul Muller.
1:00-2:00 LUNCH (Pre Function Foyer)
2:00-3:00 Film	2:00-3:00 TV - Factual	2:00-3:00 TV	2.00-3.00
Finding Your Tribe - Building Audiences and Fans Join Warner Bros' Shane Thompson as he discusses everything from audience development to maximising your IP with Greenstone TV's Rachel Antony.	The Alchemy of Science on Screen Moving beyond sci-fi and nutty professors, our panellists will discuss how science can inspire and support great chemistry on screen. Mark McNeill, Dominic Smith, Dr Annette Henderson, Richard Easter. Chair: Dacia Herbulock	Commissioner's Roundtable An opportunity to personally meet with the Commissioners from TVNZ, Māori Television, Three, RNZ, Sky, Prime and ABC.
3:00-3.30 AFTERNOON TEA - FOYER
3:30-4.45 Film/TV	3.00-5.00 TWO HOUR WORKSHOP	3.30-4.45 Film/TV	3.30-4.45
Taking Documentaries to the World Malinda Wink, Pietra Brett Kelly, Stephen Oliver Chair: Annie Goldson	Business Development Workshop with Jonathan Olsberg Brought to you by Fulcrum Media Finance In this interactive workshop, Jonathan will explain his approach to creating customised business strategies and participants will work on developing their own business models and share their discoveries.	Science Roundtables Conservation, climate change, childhood development, robots/AI... whether you're looking for a new idea or an expert to help guide your next project, this opportunity to connect with scientists and researchers may just result in the next hit show on screen.
5.00-5.30 SPADA ANNUAL SCREEN INDUSTRY AWARDS followed by
5.30-7.30 NZFC OPENING NIGHT COCKTAIL FUNCTION

All session times and speakers published in the programme are subject to change. SPADA will do its utmost to keep delegates informed of any changes to the programme.

DRAFT SPADA CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

20-21 November 2019
AOTEA CENTRE, AUCKLAND
MC: TBC

DAY TWO - Thursday 21 November

Hunua Rooms 1 & 2	Waitakere 1 Room	Waitakere 2	Waitakere 3/Green Room
Plenary/Session Venue	Sessions	Sessions/Roundtables
9.00-9.30 Special International Address from Lord David Puttnam
09.30-10.00 2030 Screen Strategy Update + Thoughts on the Future from NZ On Air's Jane Wrightson, NZFC's Annabelle Sheehan and TMP's Larry Parr
10.00-10.30 MORNING TEA Pre Function Foyer
10.30-11.30 TV	10.30-11.30	10.30-11.30	10.30-11.30
Inside the Writers Room with Jenji Kohan NZWG's President Kathryn Burnett goes behind the scenes with Jenji Kohan.	Social Impact Documentary Filmmaking Workshop with Malinda Wink	Korean Co-Production Roundtable Brought to you by Screen Wellington Join us for a conversation with two experienced Seoul-based filmmakers on the South Korean film & television industry, and how the New Zealand industry can further engagements with this Asia region. Guests: Mr. KIM Hyunkyu (Michael) – Director, and Ms. YOO Kangseoae (Isabelle) - Screenwriter, from film & tv company MOCAN. Moderator: Mr. Raymond Suen – International Relations Executive, NZFC.
11.30-12.30 TV	11.30-12.30 Web/TV
Financing High End Drama Our panel of experts share their insights and experiences of financing and producing high end drama. Panel: Simon Crawford-Collins, Philly de Lacey, Helen Bowden and Kelly Martin.	Are Webseries a development path or an enjoyable but expensive hobby? Discussing, debating and brain-storming this question are our fantastic panellists: Nick Boshier, Bridget Callow-Wright and Ness Simons. Facilitator: Natalie Apostoulou
12.30-2.00 The Great Screenrights Lunch featuring the South Pacific Pictures' BIG PITCH - Hunua Rooms
2:30-4:00 EXCLUSIVE NZ FILM SCREENING: THE FINAL QUARTER at EVENT CINEMAS, Queen Street. Followed by Q&A with MALINDA WINK Presented in collaboration with Doc Edge
6.00 RED CARPET OPENS FOR 2019 NZ TV AWARDS, AOTEA CENTRE, AUCKLAND (SPADA Delegates Receive 20% Discount off Tickets)
All session times and speakers published in the programme are subject to change. SPADA will do its utmost to keep delegates informed of any changes to the programme.			