Form of nominations Nominations must be made in writing, and be accompanied by the relevant contact details for both the nominator and the nominee. The nomination must be a maximum of 500 words.

Judges The Independent Producer of the Year award will be judged by the ten current members of the 2005/2006 SPADA Executive.

Judging Process

At the close of applications, each nominee will be asked to fact-check and confirm their nomination, between November 1st and 3rd.

The judging panel will hold a conference call between November 6th and 9th (depending on availability), in order to discuss any queries relating to the nominations.

After the conference call, the judges will have a 24-hour window to submit their votes, via email, to the SPADA office. The judges will be asked to rank their top five preferences, in order. Points will be allocated accordingly: 1st rank = 10pts, 2nd = 7, 3rd = 5, 4th = 3, 5th = 1.

The SPADA office will compile the votes. In the case of a tie, the SPADA President will have the casting vote.

The winner of the SPADA Independent Producer of the Year, sponsored by New Zealand Trade and Enterprise, will be announced at the conference dinner sponsored by TVNZ, on November 17th, during SPADA Conference 2006 at the Hyatt Regency Auckland, 16–18th November.

If the winner is not a conference delegate, they will receive a complimentary ticket to attend The TVNZ Big Dinner and SPADA Awards ceremony. In the event that the winner is not based in Auckland, SPADA will arrange for them to fly to Auckland for the evening.

Criteria The judges' evaluation will consider, but will not be limited to, the following guidelines:

- Outstanding contribution as an independent producer in the last calendar year;
- Achievement is likely to be, but does not have to be, related to production of outstanding programme(s)/project(s)/film(s);
- Overall contribution to the industry eg mentoring of younger producers/EPing may be taken into account
- Achievement may involve bringing together particularly innovative, ground-breaking work and/or projects

The judges' decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
